Required Int'l Insurance ($2.10/day x 170 days)	$357

- Of note: If studying for one semester and it is 180 days or fewer, the student should apply for the Temporary Residents without Authorization for Lucrative Activities visa, which does not require a "Proof of Funds" component. Students studying for 181 days or more will need to show $780 USD per month to support their stay for a Temporary Resident Student Visa. From the Mexican Consulate in Portland page.
- Fall is recommended, as a student may bring back 22 credits during the 2-term Winter/Spring semester, not enough to remain "full-time" for both terms for financial aid purposes.
